Well it rained all night, washed my world away
Storm I couldn't ride, mudslide of pain

Till I got my back
Against the wall, I . . .

Can't stop the rain
No, no, no
Can't stop the rain

Dreaming of the sun, oh yesterday, summer day
Ain't it funny how, the weather can change

No shelter from the storm
Black waters high

Can't stop the rain
No, no, no
Can't stop the rain

Don't know how it feels
At the top of the hill
Your whole world comes tumbling down
All your luck, it has changed
All your dreams down the drain
The water just keeps coming down

I know the sun, will shine someday
Until that time, here I'll stay

No shelter from the storm
Black waters high
